

When: Saturday July 17, 2021

Where: Olympic Unitarian Universalist Fellowship 1033 N Barr Road, Carlsborg *

GET DIRECTIONS

Time: 11:30am to 2:30pm - open house, come and go as you please - no formal meeting but “a few words” will be forthcoming from your leader around noon.

Bring: Lawn chair, sack lunch, beverage in hip flask or brown bag, dainty parasol (or golf umbrella) to protect your delicate complexions. If you have a canopy that can be erected easily, please feel free to bring it.

SHOW and TELL - let’s have a massive one! Bring items you have already shown plus what you are currently working on so we can “cop a feel” and give them a well-deserved Ooh and Ahh!

Lee Johnson will have a display of Alison Sell’s memorabilia available for a donation to the Guild.

HOWEVER, IF THE WEATHER PROMISES TO BE INCLEMENT OR ANYTHING LIKE WE JUST WENT THROUGH, EXPECT A CONTINUANCE OF THE EVENT.

COVID PRECAUTIONS

if you’re not vaccinated and/or at high risk, a mask is mandatory; otherwise, masks are voluntary. Social distancing will be observed. Be gentle on those elbow bumps!

RSVP

If you haven’t already, please rsvp yea or nay to Kathy martin at kathy@gotmygoat.com.

And as if that’s not enough...

The following day, Sunday, July 18, we are having a NOSSG Spin-In at the Alpaca Rescue Farm (Lee’s Creek – take road Straitwise on W side of Safeway on 101 in Port Angeles. More specific instructions will be circulated at picnic. Hours: 10 to 4: come and go as you wish. In addition to the alpacas and llamas, there will be flea market booths and tours. Optional voluntary donation to the Rescue. Sorry about the date but those animals are so socially engaged, it’s hard to tie them down to a time that’s more convenient . . .

Hope to see you there!
